Representation and Direct Taxes.

We have so often exposed the falsehood of the assertion made by radicals that the pending constitutional amendment would, in case of its adoption, give equal representation, that we are surprised that newspapers and orators of that party will persist in the attempt to deceive the people by repeating it. The amendment is an open and gross attempt to defraud the people of the South and West in taxation and representation, if the arguments of radicals concerning the present rule are correct. If representation based on the whole number of persons is an unfair rule, why did not Congress, in proposing a change, provide a different one?—This it did not do so far as the Northern States are concerned. The practical operation of the rule proposed in the amendment would be to leave representation in the North as it now is. There is not, probably, a single Northern State whose representation would be changed by the enfranchisement of the negroes within her limits.

Representation should be based on the whole number of voters or on the whole number of inhabitants. The radicals allege that it should be based on the number of voters, and therefore propose to amend the constitution, but, as we have seen, the rule offered by them will be the same in its operation in the North as the present one. It will require from a third to twice as many more votes in the Western States to elect a member of Congress than it will require in the Eastern States. In this it is seen that it is framed to meet the interests of New England and against the interests of the West.

If representation should be based on the number of voters, why does the rule propose that all who took part in the rebellion may be disfranchised, and yet the States thus disfranchising them be entitled to as great a number of representatives in Congress as if the Confederates were permitted to vote? A large majority of the white adult males in Tennessee and Missouri were rebels. Under the Constitutions and laws of those States they are now denied the privilege of voting, yet the States, under the amendment, would lose nothing in representation by the denial. The amendment offers a premium to minorities in the South for the disfranchisement of all who supported the Confederacy. By such disfranchisement the radical party, if it can obtain control of the State governments, may perpetuate its own power and have the full number of representatives to Congress to divide among its comparatively few members. This is certainly singular, considering the radical claim that the amendment bases representation on the number of voters. If those States disfranchise negroes, they will, under the amendment, lose in representation, but if they disfranchise white men—it makes no difference how many—they will be entitled to as many representatives as if the whole number of adult white males were permitted to vote.—This feature in the scheme was concocted by the "tinkers of the Constitution" to meet the interests of the radical party generally. New England in this was content to share with the rest. Why should the vote of one man in Tennessee or Missouri count as much as the votes of three men in Illinois?

If representation be based on the whole number of inhabitants in the North, why should it not be in the South? We have seen, under the rule proposed in the amendment, that in the north the number of inhabitants, and not the number of voters, is made the basis. If black republicans believe that all men are created equal, why do they make a distinction between negroes and white men in proposing a change in the rule of representation? If Massachusetts may be represented by the whole number of inhabitants, why may not South Carolina? If the doctrine of equality of races contended for by the radicals is correct, why may not a South Carolinian represent those who are not voters as justly as a Puritan? Under the proposed rule Massachusetts may, without loss of representation, restrict suffrage to one tenth of her adult male population, but should South Carolina restrict it to one half, she would lose half the number of her representation.

Under the Constitution, there is the same rule for apportioning representation and direct taxes. The amendment does not touch the latter. It is obvious to every person of common sense that there are much more imperative reasons for changing the rule in regard to direct taxes than the one relating to representation. In proportion to the number of inhabitants, New England has much more capital than the Western States. The State of Wisconsin has $50,000,000 of taxable property, and the city of Boston has $500,000,000. Wisconsin, with one-tenth of the capital, pays more than five times as much direct tax as Boston. Is there a man so leaden-headed that he cannot see why the rule in regard to direct taxes was left untouched? Will the abolitionists who are now blatant about inequality of representation answer why this glaring injustice to the West was unnoticed in proposing a change of the rule in which the subject was involved?—Chicago Times.

IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 3-3tawtf

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 4, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

"A Convention of Loyal Union Men to be held in Raleigh, on Thursday, the 20th of September."

Such is the announcement, by the Standard, of the miserable, wind-broken, spavined and choleric Radical Convention, proposed to meet in this city the present month. It is the death-struggle of the Holdenites and malcontents,—an expiring effort to throw their last card in North Carolina. They expect to accomplish nothing in this State. Their endorsement of the Howard amendment, and their readiness to embrace negro suffrage, have pretty well made dead-ducks of the whole fraternity, and seeing that their case is hopeless here, as a last resort they will throw themselves into the arms or rather at the feet of the Radical Congress, and take what they can get.

The real object of the meeting is to induce the Congress to abolish the civil government of the State, and throw it back under Provisional and military rule. This design is clearly set forth in the following resolution, recently adopted at a Radical meeting held in Guilford County, where the principal spokesman and leader was an Ohio abolitionist. Read the resolution:

13. That the loyal citizens of this State unite to petition to Congress on its re-assembling to pass an act to enable the loyal citizens to form a Republican government—to restore the State to a condition to be received into the Union, and deliver it entirely and forever from the misrule of traitors.

"The misrule of traitors." Who are the traitors? Who are the men seeking to subvert and overturn the government? Who are the men who oppose Union and fraternity, and good feeling? Who are the enemies of the Constitution as it is? Are they not the Sumner-Stevens party? Are they not the Holdenites, the "red strings," and those who still cling to the "strait sect?" Who are they? Are they the real Union men of this State? Are the true and always Union men of the State co-operating with them? Not at all! Will Alfred Dockery and Robt. P. Dick, and Thomas Settle and Nathaniel Boyden, and Lewis Thompson and John Pool, and hosts of others whom Mr. Eotden claims to be unmistakably Union men, be found in such company? We predict not one of them will be caught in such a crowd. If we mistake not, none of them will allow such a Convention to lay down a platform for them.—That Convention might nominate Alfred Dockery, or Robt. P. Dick, or Thomas Settle, or John Pool, or any other man in the State of respectable talents and social position, whom Mr. Holden would endorse as an unmistakably Union man, in opposition to Gov. Worth, and they would spurn such a nomination. But let that body bring forward its martyr to the cause. No matter who he is, a defeat awaits him before the people of North Carolina, more signal and overwhelming than ever fell to the lot of a mortal.

Mr. Beecher's Letter.

We are no admirer of Mr. Henry Ward Beecher, religiously or politically, but we do admire his intellect, his shrewdness and his honesty.—His letter, which we lay before our readers, to-day, exhibits these strong points in his character forcibly. There is more common sense and far reaching statesmanship in that letter, than we have seen in all the speeches and newspapers of the Radicals for a twelve month. An ultra abolitionist himself, and in the main co-operating with the Radical party, his perceptions of results are too clear not to convince him that the political designs of the Radicals will most certainly defeat the reconciliation of the States, destroy the Union and result in the annihilation of the negro race.

He, therefore, regards the early and full restoration and reconciliation of the Southern States, and the admission of their truly loyal Senators and Representatives speedily, as the greatest question now before the people of the United States, and the carrying out of President Johnson's policy as the only means of effecting that restoration, and preserving and giving encouragement and hope to the African race.

He speaks as a sage, when he suggests that the keeping down and hampering of the Southern States injures the entire Southern population, and none more so than the colored portion of it. The Southern people must be left unfettered by military power, Freedmen's Bureaus and harsh legislation, and Northern philanthopy and Northern capital must do what standing armies never can do, in inspiring mutual confidence and hope and invigorating and recuperating the country. Such a state of things would rejuvenate the land, would spur the whole population to personal effort for the individual benefit of each and the good of the whole. A conflict for negro suffrage and negro equality can never be effected other than by a full and settled conviction that, by their industry, intelligence, morality and frugality, they deserve it. As they shall merit consideration, it will come to them in degree and kind, by the free and generous concessions of the white race. Any other scheme of negro promotion and advancement betrays the ignorance and malice of those who would destroy the Union and the government to effect an impossible theory.

THE WILMINGTON Journal comes to us considerably improved in appearance. Our cotemporary deserves great success, and we are pleased to herald every indication of it.

The Newbern Radicals.

The following resolution was adopted at the meeting in Newbern, which was noticed yesterday. It professedly sets forth the present principles of those who composed the meeting:

Resolved, That the delegates who would attend the said proposed Convention should be citizens who are now unmistakably loyal to the National Government—men who sincerely and honestly desire the restoration of the Government of the State of North Carolina in harmony with that of the National Government—who expect hereafter to live and die reconciled and re-united American citizens, under the Constitution of the United States as it is, or as it may be amended in the manner prescribed therein; who know and revere but one flag—the flag of the Union; and who expect but one destiny—that of the whole American people; men with national minds and national hearts, who, after the manner of Washington, "Keep steadily in view the Constitution of our Union, as the greatest interest of every true American, and regard the continuance of the Union as a primary object of patriotic desire."

The above will likely be the outside platform of the Radical Convention, proposed to meet in this City on the 17th. inst. It is very carefully worded and is calculated to deceive the unwary. It conceals adroitly the real animus and purpose of the North Carolina Radicals. That meeting carefully refrained from endorsing either President Johnson's policy or the Radical platform. It says not a word about either, and specially avoids any allusion to the Howard amendment.

The resolution above was drawn up with Yankee shrewdness, imitating the editorials of the Standard and Times, both of which papers profess to be friends of President Johnson's policy, but whose selections, ad captandum editorials and temper, betray "unmistakably" their affiliation with the Radicals.

There is nothing in the above resolution, properly construed, that a sound Johnson man would not endorse. We have never favored, nor has Gov. Worth at any time favored, the appointment to office of any man, who is not "now unmistakably loyal." We claim no one to be a National Union man, under the lead of President Johnson, who is not "now unmistakably loyal,"—"men who sincerely and honestly desire the restoration of the government of the State of North Carolina in harmony with the National government, under the Constitution as it is."—That is the true Johnson and Worth platform. Nor will we object to amendments to the Constitution of the United States, made in due form and in accordance with that instrument; i. e. if we did not approve them, we would submit to them or leave the country. But, since the acquiescence of the Southern States in the ruinous surrender of the right of property in slaves, by the amendment of the Constitution abolishing slavery, and the repudiation of the States' war debt, and the humiliations of our people, we should oppose all further amendments and all further humiliations.

Especially are we opposed to the Howard amendment, and to all other amendments proposed by a Congress in which all the States are not represented,—all further amendments as conditions of reconciliation between the Southern and Northern States,—all amendments disturbing the reserved rights of the States and concentrating power in the Congress,—all amendments operating as ex post facto laws, or as bills of attainder, disfranchising any of our people or ignoring the constitutional power of the President to pardon political offenders,—all amendments proposing to interfere with the right of suffrage in the States or in any wise promoting negro suffrage. We are opposed to the "test oath," out and out, and shall not cease to advocate its repeal. We are for the perpetual Union of the States and a Union based upon equal laws, equal rights and equal immunities for the Southern people, under the Constition of 1787, with the amendment abolishing slavery. A different Union,—such an one as Northern and Southern Radicals propose,—we loathe as we do all affiliation with the demon of ultra abolitionism and the Prince of Darkness. These are our views, and we believe they are the views of Gov. Worth and Johnson men generally.

THE RADICAL sympathizers in the South are not, as yet, so utterly shameless, that they do not pretend, at least, to be actuated by a regard for the interests of their own people. Taking counsel of their hopes, they assume the success of the Radical programme, as embodied in the Howard amendment, and advise its acceptance "lest a worse thing befal us." In point of fact, there is no extreme of degradation that they would not gladly see inflicted upon their fellow-citizens, in revenge for the just disrepute in which they are held, but which they have brought upon themselves by their course of malignity, vindictiveness and unnatural affiliation with our enemies.

Even if there were a certainty that the Radicals were destined to succeed in their course of disfranchisement and proscription, (which is very far from being the case,) how ignoble the spirit which would welcome the debasement of our people, and which turns the back upon those who are struggling to avert it from us!—The fact that these Radical sympathizers do this, is conclusive of the falsity of their professions, and that, in their hearts, they hate their neighbors, because they have shown their disgust and aversion at their duplicity, treachery and cowardice.

The secret of Radical sympathy in the South is manifest to every observer. A sectional party desires to rule a dozen States of this Union in violation of every principle of natural right and republican liberty. They propose to disfranchise the many, and subject them to the domination of a small junta of so-called loyal men in every State; those only being considered loyal who agree to everything the sectional dictatorship demands. How tempting a prize is here offered to such men as are lost to every hope of honor and preferment at the hands of their own people, and can therefore cut loose from every tie of association, and kindred, and neighborly kindness, and act as the tools of a non-resident despotism!

The Mulatto Convention in Philadelphia.

The telegraph furnishes us with some account of the doings, on yesterday, in the city of Philadelphia, of the fanatical mob of political desperadoes known, indifferently, as the "Sneak," the "Mulatto," and the "mean white" Convention. Called under the auspices of such creatures as Brownlow and Hamilton, both of whom stink in the nostrils of all decent men in their respective States, and who are no more the exponents of popular feeling in either, than any inmate of their penitentiaries, it purports to be a Convention of "Southern Loyalists." Never was there a more ridiculous misnomer. The number of Southern delegates, compared with those sent thither from the North, is infinitesimally small. It has been not inaptly suggested that it will become neccessary to bell them, in order that they may not get lost in the crowd and so fail of identification. This, however, is unimportant, as the turbulent spirits who flock there from New England will be just as much the representatives of public sentiment in the South as any of the delegates from this section. Banks and Butler and Stevens are fully as qualified to speak for the true and loyal men of the South in that conclave as either Hamilton, Brownlow or Botts; and, so far as North Carolina is concerned, the bluest-nosed puritan from the classic banks of Passamaquoddy Bay is equally authorized, with any man who may attend from this State, to reflect or speak its sentiments.

This convocation is by far a more treasonable one than that which assembled in Hartford during the war of 1812, with not the hundredth part of the respectability in its composition.—It is called for the purpose of uprooting the Constitution, subverting the true principles of the government, forcing negro suffrage and equality upon the country, and imposing the yoke of a galling despotism upon the necks of a people, who are not half so responsible for the war as the architects of ruin who compose the Convention. The animus under which it convenes is to be gathered from the speech of Brownlow, at a Radical meeting in Philadelphia on Saturday night last, an abstract of which was given in our telegraphic columns on yesterday, and in which he uttered sentiments atrocious and diabolical enough to put Belial himself to blush.

Such are the surroundings and character of this traitorous concern. We shall watch, with the same sort of curiosity that we would inspect some monstrosity or deformity of nature, for the names of the Southern men who may participate in its deliberations and sanction its action,—if those deliberations and that action be according to the beginning inaugurated by Brownlow. And, judging from the meagre details of the proceedings of yesterday, which have come to hand, there is every reason to believe that the programme will be fully carried out. The insults offered to the President of the nation, the enthusiastic welcome of Fred. Douglas, and other incidents, stamp the character of the Convention.

The sense of the whole country will be shocked and disgusted. These creatures will soon sink irredeemably

> "In the world's regard, wretched and low, > Poor unminded outlaws."

"The "radicals," as they are called, are the very people who suppressed the rebellion."—Standard.

Butler, for instance, the valiant hero, who always acted upon the principle, during the war, that

> "He who fights and runs away,
> Will live to fight another day," and who now accordingly proposes to "march" again. Banks, for instance, who supplied the Confederate armies in the Valley and Louisiana campaigns with commissary supplies to that extent that they were never compelled to draw upon their own resources, and who earned the soubriquet of "Stonewall Jackson's commissary." Pope, for instance, who performed such prodigies on paper, and was rewarded by being sent to keep a few hundred Indian squaws in order on a remote frontier.

The real fighting Generals of the war, with Grant and Sherman at their head, and the men who furnished the "sinews of war," such as Stewart, Astor, and others, all warmly endorse the President's policy. Those who did the least fighting and the loudest talking, are the men who sympathize with the Radicals at the North. The same thing may be said of the South. The men who urged their fellow-citizens to "f-i-g-h-t," and who pledged the "last dollar and the last man" for Southern independence, are those who would now degrade and ruin the people whom they betrayed.

THE Standard pretends that the Address of the National Union Convention embodies "pretty good radical doctrine." If this is so, can any one tell why the entire Radical press of the country, North and South, including the Standard, denounce it in such unmeasured terms?—"Will that paper attempt an explanation of this glaring inconsistency?"

"There is no material difference between the plan of the President and the plan of Congress.—Standard.

The unblushing effrontery which would make such an assertion is equal to any thing.

If there be no difference between the plan of the President and that of Congress, how will Mr. Holden justify himself in turning his back upon the President, who has honored him heretofore? "Republics are ungrateful;" and San Salvador is no execption.

We learn that a radical meeting in a neighboring county (not Rutherford) was so thinly attended that its friends let it wilt. A tall rawboned man, in a very juicy condition, was holding to the door. He called out—"boys are ye gwine to gin it up." "Yes," was the response. "Well, hadn't I better adjourn ye." "Yes." Where upon he commenced singing—

> "And let this feeble body fail,
> And let it droop and and die,
> My soul shall quit this mournful vale
> And soar to worlds on high."—Asheville News.

Letter of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

The Executive Committee of the National Convention of the Soldiers and Sailors, to meet in Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th. inst., addressed a letter to Mr. Beecher, requesting his attendance at the Convention to act as Chaplain. Mr. Beecher declines, but sends the following patriotic and encouraging letter:

PEEKSKILL, August 30.

CHARLES G. HALPINE, BREVET BRIG.-GEN.; W. SLOCUM, MAJ.-GEN.; GORDON GRANGER, MAJ.-GEN.,—COMMITTEE:

GENTLEMEN:—I am obliged to you for the invitation which you have made me to act as Chaplain to the Convention of Sailors and Soldiers about to convene at Cleveland. I cannot attend it, but I heartily wish it, and all other Conventions, of what party soever, success, whose object is the restoration of all the States late in the rebellion to their Federal relations.

Our theory of government has no place for a State except in the Union. It is justly taken for granted that the duties and responsibilities of a State in federal relations tend to its political health, and to that of the whole nation.—Even Territories are hastily brought in, often before the prescribed conditions are fulfilled, as if it were dangerous to leave a community outside of the great body politic.

Had the loyal Senators and Representatives of Tennessee been admitted at once on the assembling of Congress, and, in moderate succession, Arkansas, Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, and Virginia, the public mind of the South would have been far more healthy than it is, and those States which lingered on probation to the last would have been under a more salutary influence to good conduct than if a dozen armies watched over them.

Every month that we delay this healthful step complicates the case. The excluded population, enough unsettled before, grow more irritable; the army becomes indispensable to local government, and supersedes it; the government at Washington is called to interfere in one and another difficulty, and this will be done inaptly, and sometimes with great injustice; for our government, wisely adapted to its own proper functions, is utterly devoid of those habits and unequipped with the instruments which fit a centralized government to exercise authority in remote States over local affairs. Every attempt to perform such duties has resulted in mistakes which have excited the nation. But whatever imprudence there may be in the method, the real criticism should be against the requisition of such duties of the general government.

The Federal government is unfit to exercise minor police and local government, and will inevitably blunder when it attempts it. To keep a half score of States under Federal authority, but without national ties and responsibilities; to oblige the central authority to govern half the territory of the Union by Federal civil officers and by the army, is a policy not only uncongenial to our ideas and principles, but pre eminently dangerous to the spirit of our government.—However humane the ends sought and the motives, it is, in fact, a course of instruction, preparing our government to be despotic, and familiarizing the people to a stretch of authority which can never be other than dangerous to liberty.

I am aware that good men are withheld from advocating the prompt and successive admission of the exiled States by the fear, chiefly, of its effect upon parties, and upon the freedmen.

It is said, that if admitted to Congress, the Southern senators and representatives will coalesce with Northern Democrats, and rule the country. Is this nation, then, to remain dismembered to serve the ends of parties? Have we learned no wisdom by the history of the last ten years, in which just this course of sacrificing the nation to the exigencies of parties plunged us into rebellion and war?

Even admit that the power would pass into the hands of a party made up of Southern men, and the hitherto dishonored and misled Democracy of the North, that power could not be used just as they pleased. The war has changed, not alone institutions, but ideas. The whole country has advanced. Public sentiment is exalted far beyond what it has been at any former period. A new party would, like a river, be obliged to seek out its channels, in the already existing slopes and forms of the continent.

We have entered a new era of liberty. The style of thought is freer and more noble. The young men of our times are regenerated. The great army has been a school, and hundreds of thousands of men are gone home to preach a truer and nobler view of human rights. All the industrial interests of society are moving with increasing wisdom toward intelligence and liberty. Everywhere, in churches, in literature, in natural sciences, in physical industries, in social questions, as well as in politics, the nation feels that the winter is over, and a new spring hangs in the horizon, and works through all the elements. In this happily changed and advanced condition of things, no party of the retrograde can maintain itself. Everything marches, and parties must march.

I hear with wonder and shame and scorn, the fear of a few, that the South, once more in adjustment with the Federal government, will rule this nation! The North is rich, never so rich; the South is poor, never before so poor. The population of the North is nearly double that of the South. The industry of the North, in diversity, in forwardness and productiveness, in all the machinery and education required for manufacturing, is half a century in advance of the South. Churches in the North crown every hill, and schools swarm in every neighborhood; while the South has but scattered lights, at long distances, like lighthouses twinkling along the edge of a continent of darkness. In the presence of such a contrast how mean and craven is the fear that the South will rule the policy of the land! That it will have an influence, that it will contribute, in time, most important influences or restraints, we are glad to believe. But, if it rises at once to the control of the government, it will be because the North, demoralized by prosperity, and besotted by groveling interests, refuses to discharge its share of political duty. In such a case, the South not only will control the government, but it ought to do it!

2. It is feared, with more reason, that the restoration of the South to her full independence will be detrimental to the freedmen. The sooner we dismiss from our minds the idea that the freedmen can be classified, and separated from the white population, and nursed and defended by themselves, the better it will be for them and us. The negro is part and parcel of Southern society. He cannot be prosperous while it is unprospered. Its evils will rebound upon him. Its happiness and reinvigoration cannot be kept from his participation. The restoration of the South to amicable relations with the North, the re-organization of its industry, the reinspiration of its enterprise and thrift, will all redound to the freedmen's benefit. Nothing is so dangerous to the freedmen as an unsettled state of society in the South. On him comes all the spite, and anger, and caprice, and revenge. He will be made the scapegoat of lawless and heartless men. Unless we turn the government into a vast military machine, there cannot be armies enough to protect the freedmen while Southern society remains insurrectionary. If Southern society is calmed, settled, and occupied and soothed with new hopes and prosperous industries, no armies will be needed. Riots will subside, lawless hangers on will be driven off or better governed, and a way will be gradually opened up to the freedmen, through education and industry, to full citizenship, with all its honors and duties.

Civilization is a growth. None can escape that forty years in the wilderness who travel from the Egypt of ignorance to the promised land of civilization. The freedmen must take their march. I have full faith in the results.—If they have the stamina to undergo the hardships which every uncivilized people has undergone in their upward progress, they will in due time take their place among us. That place cannot be bought, nor bequeathed, nor gained by sleight of hand. It will come to sobriety, virtue, industry and frugality. As the nation cannot be sound until the South is prosperous, so, on the other extreme, a healthy condition of civil society in the South is indispensable to the welfare of the freedmen!

Refusing to admit loyal Senators and Representatives from the South to Congress will not help the freedmen. It will not secure for them the vote. It will not protect them. It will not secure any amendment of our Constitution, however just and wise. It will only increase the dangers and complicate the difficulties.—Whether we regard the whole nation, or any section or it or class in it, the first demand of our time is, entire reunion.

Once united, we can, by schools, churches, a free press and increasing free speech, attack each evil and secure every good.

Meanwhile the great chasm which rebellion made is not filled up. It grows deeper and stretches wider! Out of it rise dread spectres and threatening sounds. Let that gulf be closed, and bury in it slavery, sectional anmosity, and all strifes and hatreds!

It is fit that the brave men, who, on sea and land, faced death to save the nation, should now, by their voice and vote, consummate what their swords rendered possible.

For the sake of the freedman, for the sake of the South and its millions of our fellow-countrymen, for our own sake, and for the great cause of freedom and civilization, I urge the immediate reunion of all the parts which rebellion and war have shattered.

I am truly yours,
HENRY WARD BEECHER.

What "True" Union Men Think of the Mulatto Convention.

The following letter from the Hon. Robert Ridgway, to a gentleman of Richmond, fully explains itself. Mr. Ridgway's name was placed upon the list of delegates to the Philadelphia "Mulatto" Convention, without his knowledge or consent:

AMHERST, Aug. 30, 1866.

MY DEAR SIR:—Yours of the 27th is just to hand, and contains the first intimation I had had that the scamps at Alexandria, without the slightest communication with, or authority from me, had taken the outrageous liberty of using my name in connection with their appointment of delegates to the "Mulatto Convention," at Philadelphia, well knowing, as they did, that I had not a particle of sympathy with them or the Jacobin rabble to which they belong. I have no language with which to characterize this infamous proceeding on their part. You have authority from me, however, to tell them, privately, and publicly, that I consider them a set of unprincipled political vagabonds and villians; and if I deemed them worthy of notice, I should be tempted to go to Alexandria with the deliberate purpose of caning them across the Potomac. I cordially despise Northern Radicals, but my scorn and contempt for a Virginia Radical hath no bounds.

You will perceive from the above that you have my full "authority" to stamp the whole thing, so far as I am concerned, as a villainous outrage upon me and deliberate fraud upon the public.

Thanking you for your friendly favor, I am, in haste, yours, &c.,

R. RIDGWAY.

By His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH,

GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to me that JOSEPH SUGG, late of the County of Wake in said State, stands charged with the murder of one W. L. Fort, late of said county and State, and that the said Sugg is a fugitive from justice and has escaped beyond the limits of the State:

NOW, THEREFORE, in order that the said Sugg may be arrested and brought to trial, for the said alleged murder, I JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, do issue this my proclamation, offering the reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for his apprehension and delivery to the Sheriff of said County of Wake.

In witness thereof, His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has L. S. hereto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done, at the City of Raleigh, this the 29th. day of August A. D. 1866.

By the Governor: JONATHAN WORTH.
WM. H. BAGLEY, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION.

JOSEPH SUGG is represented to be about 20 years of age—5 feet, 6 or 7 inches high—dark hair—blue eyes, round face—full lips—nose slightly inclined to turn up—florid complexion—has rather a down look—in conversation draws out his words long and loud—wears No. 5 shoes, and generally black clothes.

THE SENTINEL.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 4, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Pulliam, Jones & Co have white corn and salt for sale.

Hon. W. T. Dorch, of Goldsboro, advertises for books belonging to his law and miscellaneous library, carried off by Federal soldiers in 1865.

Wm. Badham, Edenton, Administrator of E. C. Hines, dec'd, offers a valuable library for sale.

THANKS to W. W. Green, Esq., messenger of the National Express Co., for late papers.

GRAND CONCERT.—Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, and for its aid, the distinguished artist, Mr. Leo. Wheat, whose reputation at home and abroad has been most satisfactorily sustained here, will give one of his matchless concerts. Those who have heard Mr. Wheat, know what is in store under such an announcement, and those who have not heard him, may have an opportunity of listening to one who, though young, has already attained eminent superiority as an artist of the first order.

But on this occasion he will use one of Wm. Knabe & Co's. magnificent Concert Grand Pianos, an instrument, in itself a perfect orchestra, which has never been exhibited in our city. The firm, from whose manufactory it is expressly forwarded for Mr. Wheat's Concerts, is eminently entitled to Southern favor, and has heretofore always enjoyed the greatest popular esteem here, both on account of the courtesy and generosity of the members of the firm, and the excellence of their instruments. The varied qualities of such a superb instrument can be successfully elicited by the performer. And our citizens may regard themselves fortunate in the privilege which awaits them.

In this concert, to be given during the present week, Mr. Wheat will be assisted by the first amateur talent.

"OLD CAPT. GAROUTTE" GONE!—The name of Capt. Garoutte has been a terror to horse and mule owners in the State. The poor men and poor widows, whose horses have been seized by his order, and who have cried over their losses, may dry up their tears. The "old Capt." is certainly gone!—gone glimmering between two days, and has left for parts unknown.—Garoutte was convicted of unfair dealing with the government, we understand, and paid the penalty. But he was bound over under several charges for unfair dealing against citizens, for which he was amenable to the civil law. He was under bail, but has fled, and left his sureties, we learn, to foot the bill. These particulars we gather from respectable army officers.

Well, we hope he will not be brought back. We would subscribe as liberally as our poor purse would allow, to rid the South of all such men. From what we have heard of him, he was the strongest mixture of truth and falsehood, penitence and pride, piety and hypocrisy, friend and enemy to the South, we wot of. He is gone, and joy go with him. Let it now be known, that if any body comes along professing to have an order from Capt. Garoutte, or any one else, he is a cheat and imposter, and have him arrested forthwith.

A WORD TO COLORED PERSONS.—According to the late law, all colored men and women residing in any County in this State, who have been living together as man and wife, are required to go before the Clerk of the County Court and acknowledge that they are man and wife, and obtain a certificate of that fact from the Clerk. In Wake County, quite a number have done this, but we we are under the impression there are yet many who have failed to do so. All persons knowing instances of this sort should inform them of the law. We have a vague impression, and we have not the law convenient to consult, that the time in which they are allowed to report will soon expire.—If colored men and women fail to comply with the law, they will both be liable to indictment and fine, and perhaps imprisonment for living in adultery. The intelligent colored people should be careful to instruct the more ignorant in this matter. Publication of the law should frequently be made at their religious and other gatherings.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The farmers and planters of Wake County must move early in this matter. The State Agricultural Society must be revived. We should be glad if Dr. Holt, the late President of the State Society would convene the Association as soon as possible. The State Agricultural Society, through the agency of the County Societies, could soon inaugurate a just and proper system of labor throughout the State, which would be of immense benefit. Let the ball be started at once.

WHAT WE LOVE TO SEE.—We love to see the blooming rose in all its beauty dressed; we love to hear our friends disclose the emotions of the breast. We love to see a team arrive, well laden, at our door; we love to see our neighbors thrive, and love to bless the poor. We love to see domestic life with uninterrupted joys; we love to see a happy wife with lots of girls and boys. We love all these—yet far above all we ever said, we love what every printer loves, those who have subscriptions paid.—Lynchburg News.

The Local of the News has given above a good specimen of poetic prose, and there is much truth and beauty in it. But we cannot endorse his conclusion. There are several things enumerated which a true hearted printer ought to love more than paid subscriptions; yet numerous subscribers and paid subscriptions are a sine qua non, in order to the possession of the other lovely things at a printer's home. Send them on, friends.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE PRESIDENTIAL DINNER IN NEW YORK. The dinner given at Delmonico's on Wednesday evening was probably the most elegant and expensive affair of the kind ever enjoyed by so large a party in this country. When the committee of citizens having charge of the presidential reception had determined on a state banquet, they ordered, at the Delmonico's 14th street place, a dinner for two hundred and fifty, with the direction that it should be the best that could be gotten up. No limit was placed as to the cost of the dinner or wines. We are informed that the dinner actually cost $25,000, or one hundred dollars for each plate.—New York Post.

While the President was proceeding up Broadway on Wednesday in a barouche with Mayor Hoffman, a couple of Irishmen in the immense crowd were overheard in the following conversation: "Jem, the Heaven itself smiles upon him to-day." "Yes, Mr. Donnelly, ye may well say that. If the President had the sun in one hand and a watering pot in the other, he couldn't make better weather for himself."

The order of General Howard, relieving General Davis Tillson from special duty in the freedmen's bureau, and directing his immediate return to Augusta, Ga., to resume the duties of assistant commissioner of freedmen's affairs in that State, pretty effectually disposes of the reports current here for the last ten days that he was to succeed General Howard as commissioner.

Gov. Brownlow, of Tennessee, has assumed the power to remove a Judge from the bench, Mr. Campbell, Chancellor of the Judicial District, embracing Nashville. The American says "of all the outrages perpetrated, or attempted, by the remarkable personage now claiming to be Governor of Tennessee, this we regard as the boldest and most unblushing."

CHEERING PROSPECTS IN ILLINOIS.—The Chicago Times thinks Illinois will send eight, and perhaps nine, representatives to the next Congress who support the President's policy.—The Radicals likely to be displaced are Baker, Kuykendall, Harding, Bromwell and Cullum.

Governor Jenkins has sold half a million of Georgia bonds in New York, at ninety cents in the dollar.

The Philadelphia burglars have constructed and patented a lever warranted to open any safe in three hours.

A fellow in jail wishes he had the small pox, so he could "break out;" he has tried every thing else, he says, but he "can't come it."

How is it that the trees can put on a new dress without opening their trunks? It is because they leave out their summer clothing.

The Chicago Tribune says that "cow-stealing has been reduced to a fine art" in that city.—The fine arts must rank low in Chicago.

Kate Josephine Bateman's property is estimated to be worth $750,000—a good return for "ten years of the life of an actress."

An abandoned child was lately picked up in Blandford. The Petersburg Index says it was a dainty little cherub, beautifully dressed in gowns of fine linen and laces and frills, that gave evidence of luxury in the abode from which it came.

An Englishman in India was horrified at receiving a telegraphic dispatch from England that his wife had been delivered of five daughters. The message should have said a fine daughter.

The Bangor Times, an old Republican concern, has recanted its heresies, taken down General Chamberlain's name from the head of its columns, and substituted that of Hon. E. F. Pillsbury, the Democratic candidate.

LOUISVILLE, August 31.—General T. L. Crittenden has issued an address to the Union soldiers and sailors of Kentucky who are favorable to the principles enunciated by the late Philadelphia Convention, and appointing a long list of delegates to attend the National Convention to be held at Cleveland, September 17th.—Among the delegates are the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Generals Rosseau, Ward, Whittaker, Hobson, Garrard, Boyle and Watkins, and a large number of Kentucky Union officers.

EFFECTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR.—The enthusiasm which the tour of the President and his party through the State has created among all classes leaves no doubt as to the result of the political canvass in this State. The Radicals have shown by their loss of temper that their case is hopeless. At all points the reaction has commenced against them and is making rapid progress.—N. Y. Herald.

Speaking of General Butler's threat to "march," the Springfield Republican thinks the threat is fearful to such as march with him.

Southern Feeling as to Northern Dead.

General George W. Morgan, a Union soldier, and Democratic candidate for Congress, from the State of New York, recently made the following statement in a speech:

* * * "The people of the South have extended to the people of the West and North the hand of reconciliation. To sustain what I say, I could narrrate many facts, but will not mention but one.

"In order to secure a suitable cemetery for our gallant soldiers who fell upon the plains of Alabama, the authorities of the United States desired to purchase three acres beautifully located within the corporate limits of the city of Mobile. The tract was valuable but the purpose was sacred to which it was to be dedicated. It was proprosed to make three acres the honored home of the Union dead, and there, within the corporate limits of Mobile, to erect a monument to commemorate their deeds. But the authorities of Mobile refused to sell. What! refuse to sell sufficient ground to contain the bones of our absent ones—our fathers, brothers, sons? Yes, my countrymen, these Southern men did refuse to sell sufficient ground on which to bury our heroic dead—but with a magnanimity, only equalled by their courage, those Southern men did by free gift convey those three acres to the United States. And the hand of the Mayor of Mobile; the hand which signed that deed of gift, had, during our unhappy war, wielded the sword of a Confederate General." (Great applause.)

Another Conservative Victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 30.—Holbrook, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress from Idaho, will have six hundred majority.

A FIENDISH ACT.—On Friday night some wretch placed a stick of wood across the N. C. Railroad track near the Female College in this town, for the purpose, no doubt, of throwing the train off. The 9 o'clock train struck the obstruction, but fortunately the cow-catcher lifted it from the track and prevented destruction and loss of life. Any person who obstructs a Railroad track for such fiendish purposes ought to be executed as soon as caught.—Charlotte Democrat.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3, P. M.

The Union League members marched from their rooms to Independence Square, this morning, where the delegates to the Convention united with them, and all proceeded to National Hall.

Gen. Butler, Fred. Douglas and Brownlow, and others, were welcomed with cheers at the National Guards' Hall, before the meeting of the Convention.

Chas. Gibbon received the Southern delegates, and Hamilton, of Texas, responded. At the conclusion of which some one in the crowd called for "three groans for the dead dog at the White House;" which was followed by a pretty general hooting and exclamations of derision.

On the opening of the Convention, which was very largely attended,—four-fifths being from the North,—Thos. J. Durant, of New Orleans, was chosen temporary chairman, and committees were appointed; after which the Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning.

The city Council, by formal resolutions, welcomed the delegates to the city and extended to them the hospitalities thereof.

Eleven new cases of cholera reported to-day, and six deaths.

The President's Progress.

BUFFALO, Sept. 3.

The President and party were met here to-day by an immense crowd. The President, in company with Secretaries Seward and Welles, spent some time on the American side of the Falls and afterwards went as far as the Suspension Bridge.

The President is suffering from hoarseness, owing to frequent and loud speaking.

The expenses of the President's tour, so far as hospitalities and transportation are concerned, are borne by Committees of citizens at the various places, by voluntary contribution.

A minority of the Committee, composed of Raymond, Cuthbert, Bullitt, and others, met at the Astor House, N. Y., but adjourned on account of the few members present. The Executive Committee will fix the day for another meeting.

I tried several kinds of patent medicines but found no relief. I also tried the skill of the most eminent Physicians but still found no relief. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men; who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER; the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE SENTINEL.

WM. R. PELL, Proprietor.

For the Sentinel.

Our Lost Banner.

[TO THOSE WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR IT.]

We flung to the breeze our flag proudly waving,—
The bright starry cross and the field of pure white;
And many brave men, the proud enemy braving,
Resolved to uphold it, or die for the right.

Bravely they bore it, while hope cheered them onward,
To repel the invader from each happy home;
Now should their memory ever be honored;
By the truest and best that bright banner was borne.

But now we must furl,—now fold it, forever,
For many that bore it by death are laid low;
And mem'ry will bring them before us together,—
The ones that we loved and the banner they bore.

R. P. H.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 3, 1866.

A clergyman who had an engagement to preach in Richmond on a recent Sunday, arrived there on the Saturday previous in a steamer. Finding the state-rooms very comfortable, he determined to sleep there that night.—Awaking on Sunday morning, after a refreshing slumber, he was astonished and horrified to find himself at the wharf in Norfolk, a hundred and fifty miles from the congregation which waited for his coming. The captain of the vessel had received during the evening a telegraphic dispatch ordering his immediate return, and not knowing the clergyman's presence, had made the trip without awakening him.

"Nothing but the head," he replied.

"Why so?"

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Taw, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,
